HISTORY OF EDUCATION SOCIETY AWARD

The History of Education Society awards a prize of $500 biennially for the best article in the history of education, broadly defined to include work on schools, students, teachers, higher education, families, and a wide range of cultural and educational institutions.

The next award will be presented at the fall 2002 meeting of the History of Education Society.

Articles published in journals during 2000 and 2001 (no book chapters) are eligible. Self nominations are also welcome. The postmark deadline for entries is April 1, 2002. Entrants should send six copies of the article to:
